

2010 Holiday Jollification

Our Annual Will Crakes Memorial Jollification was held on Saturday, December 4, at the lovely 1890s Victorian home of John and Barbara Nelson in Shoreline.

The food was, as always, plentiful...this being a Sherlockian event, after all!

What we lacked in numbers of attendees (only 11 of us), we made up for in the distance traveled to get to the Nelsons' welcoming home. The Dwight Holmeses came from LaConner, the McElvaneys from Puyallup and the Haugens from Gig Harbor.

The Nelsons surprised us all by playing Christmas music over their TV rather than the usual Ronald Howard TV serial reruns. Something else that delighted all was Barbara's new backyard rock garden...put in recently by John!! What a great gift for her!!

In addition to those shown below, attending the Jollification were PFL David and Terri Haugen and our hostess Barbara Nelson.

Another holiday season behind us, and a great time was had by all!
