

The Club Enjoys Longenbaugh's Christmas Play!

We had 20 SOB's in attendance at the December 8 performance of SOB John Longenbaugh's "Sherlock Holmes and The Case of The Christmas Carol"...a mash-up of Dickens and Conan Doyle!

Dinner was enjoyed by many prior to the performance around the corner at Romio's Pizza and Pasta.

Terri got to sit very close to the playwright that night who was fun to observe chuckling and gesturing at various spots in the performance!

The director even announced our group's presence to the audience. Then we had a chance to meet and ask questions of the cast afterward. We didn't all get to sit together, however, so at the intermission not everyone got into the picture-taking action! (See below)

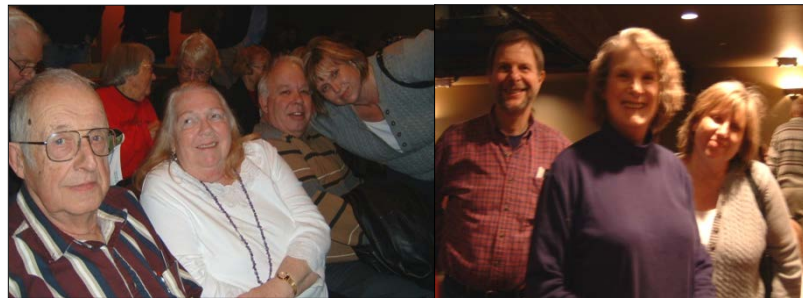

We placed an ad in the program at the Taproot Theatre, then got this from their PR person: "You will be thrilled to hear that we have totally sold out for 'Sherlock Holmes and the Case of the Christmas Carol', so your ad will be seen by 8,000 patrons. Wow!"

Others attending this event, not pictured below, included Peter & Kay Chelemedos, Pat Connelly and Nola Cheff.

A most terrific play and a marvelous evening to add to our holiday memories!!

Above, l to r, John Longenbaugh, Jean Macdonald, Stephen Adkins; Treasurer Al, Carrol Clemens; Margaret & Al Nelson. Below, John & Barbara Nelson and Hank & Margie Deck; PFL David, Librarian Sheila Holtgrieve, Margie.

Photos by Terri Haugen

Below are some additional photos taken during the Q & A with the cast.

At left, playwright John Longenbaugh, the fellow who played "The Professor", and actor Terry Moore who played Holmes.

At right, Holmes and his Watson.

