

September is PFL David's 28th Year!!

We forgot to take a photo before cutting the cake—so there is no evidence of its deliciousness—but the crowd at the September 2011 Meeting of The Sound of the Baskervilles sure gobbled it up!! Yes, it was September and time to celebrate PFL David's anniversary as our fearless leader—his 28th this year! There were only a few slices of the sheet cake remaining, which we left for the marvelous staff at T.S. McHugh's to enjoy!

Among the items PFL David announced during the business portion of the Meeting:

- Sherlockian Things at the World Science Fiction Convention (in Reno in August):
  - ◇ One panel Haugens attended was titled “Geek as Hero” at which the British member of the panel mentioned BBC’s “Sherlock” as an example.
  - ◇ SOB Stu Shiffman gave out the Hugo for best fan artist. (An award he has won previously).
  - ◇ Steven Moffat got a Hugo for Best Dramatic Presentation Short Form for a “Doctor Who” script. He is also a co-writer for the BBC “Sherlock” series.
- The Seattle Antiquarian Book Fair will take place on October 8 & 9 at the Seattle Center Exhibition Hall at Third & Mercer. The hours are Saturday 10:00 to 5:00 and Sunday 11:00 to 4:00. The cost is $5 for both days.

We welcomed back long-term Members Peter & Kay Chelemedos, whom we hadn't seen since our Master's Dinner in January! They've settled into their new place in Edmonds nicely. See the squib from Peter on Page 4 of the October issue of Ineffable Twaddle (Vol. 30, Issue 10).

We also met for the first time new Member Ann Milam! Ann had contacted PFL David last December, but her travels and volunteering have kept her from coming to a meeting! But she joined in July anyway! She's a Professor of Ophthalmology retired from the U-Dub and U-Penn! Ann told us at the Meeting that she's “new” to Sherlock Holmes, but she sure did her homework, tying for 3rd place in our quiz on The Hound of the Baskervilles!! And, Ann received her official Certificate of Membership from PFL David!

And for all the news that's fit to print—from our Members and about Sherlockian items of import—be sure to see the October issue of our monthly newsletter, Ineffable Twaddle (Vol. 30, Issue 10), elsewhere on this website!
